Here's a summary of the incredible golf tour package from Magellan Jets and Four Seasons:

Four Seasons Hotel Miami:

The seven-night, multi-destination voyage, commences at the epicenter of modern Miami. Guests arrive by private transfer, to the 70-story Four Seasons Hotel Miami, set in the entertainment and dining neighborhood of Brickell. Boasting views of Biscayne Bay and the city's evolving skyline, guests check in to their choice of luxury suite, or condo-style accommodation equipped with a full-size kitchen or kitchenette and other home-away-from-home amenities. That evening, they'll be escorted to the Design District. Featuring internationally recognized luxury shops and award-winning dining options, they'll celebrate their first night in Miami with shopping and reservations to one of the city's most acclaimed restaurants of their choice.

On the agenda for day two, is a round of golf at the 18-hole Crandon Golf Course, rated one of the "Top Public Golf Courses in Florida," by Golf Digest, and located on Miami's barrier island of Key Biscayne. With 250 acres of tropical paradise, guests will enjoy an interactive Four Seasons dining experience with "Lunch on the Green." Upon returning to the hotel, they'll enjoy poolside pampering on the 7th floor, two-acre terrace, before their final farewell dinner in Bahía, the recently renovated poolside restaurant. Private transfers to-and-from the airport and to pre-arranged experiences are provided. Daily breakfast in EDGE Steak & Bar also included.

Four Seasons Resort Costa Rica at Peninsula Papagayo:

The group will then board a Magellan Jets flight to Four Seasons Resort Costa Rica, a hillside oasis nestled between two golden sand beaches on the tip of Guanacaste's exclusive Peninsula Papagayo where they will enjoy luxury combined with local 'pura vida' lifestyle. Upon landing, guests will be transported to the property via private SUV vehicles in true Four Seasons style. As the sun sets on day three, guests will retire to two or three-bedroom elegant treehouse villas or larger residences Casa del Cielo and Casa de la Luna which boast panoramic vistas of Bay of Culebra and the Pacific Ocean.

Leisurely excursions planned for the two-night playover include zip lining, golfing on the Resort's Signature 18 Hole Arnold Palmer Golf Course, palatsunset cocktails at the 3rd hole, a locally-inspired cooking class, and the Taste the Stars experience where astronomy meets gastronomy for a palate-pleasing culinary experience. Guests will also enjoy treatments at the property's award-winning spa and can also partake in Four Seasons Resort Costa Rica's renowned Wellness and Fitness program.

Four Seasons Resort Nevis:

Four Seasons Resort Nevis completes the trifecta, with a golf game on the 6,766-yard, par-71 golf course. The links ranges from Pinney's Beach to the slopes of Nevis Peak, and offers spectacular panoramic vistas of the Caribbean Sea and neighboring St. Kitts. Guests also will stay in a luxurious two- to four-bedroom private villa, adjacent to the golf course, and be welcomed with an in-villa, private chef dining experience on arrival day. In addition to play on the Robert Trent Jones II-designed course, guests also will have an opportunity to rejuvenate with included spa treatments for each guest, a day's rental of the Resort's 200 sq. ft., beachside luxury Beach House, a sumptuous private rum pairing dinner in Mango, the Resort's oceanfront restaurant, featuring the 101 Rums Bar, the only bar in the Caribbean focused on fine-aged rums, and access to all the Resort's extensive restaurants, lounges, and amenities.

But that's not all. During your visit to the Four Seasons Resort Nevis, enjoy the YU Lounge experience. Be picked up on the airport tarmac by private luxury vehicles and driven to the luxury airport lounge. Personal concierges service takes care of your immigration and customs procedures. Then relax and be treated ot gourmet hors d'oeuvres and champagne. Now that's VIP living.
