

Beau-Rivage Palace – Stunning Views of the Swiss Alps

Beau-Rivage Palace

The luxurious Beau-Rivage Palace hotel is located on 10 acres of private gardens, adjacent to Lake Geneva in Switzerland, offering incredible views of the majestic Swiss Alps.

Lausanne's dynamic art and culture scene is now able to be experienced by each hotel guest. The Beau-Rivage Palace has developed an arrangement with the nearby Fondation de l'Hermitage, offering access to the prestigious private Hahnloser Collection.

The Fondation de l'Hermitage is a stunning 19th-century-home-turned-museum. The Fondation de l'Hermitage now showcases the private collection of Arthur and Hedy Hahnloser, which includes unique works by renowned artists – and personal friends of the Hahnlosers – such as Ferdinand Hodler, Giovanni Giacometti and Félix Vallotton.

Beau-Rivage Palace

For body & soul pampering, the Beau-Rivage Palace hotel also offers the award-winning 15,000-square-foot Cinq Mondes Spa which contains a fitness room, indoor and outdoor infinity pools, a hot tub, and nine treatment rooms.

The hotel recently opened a two-star Michelin restaurant – Anne-Sophie Pic at the Beau-Rivage Palace,. The restaurant features France’s only female chef with three Michelin stars.

Contact us for special rates and make a reservation at the Beau-Rivage Palace hotel.