The Catalonia Royal Tulum Resort and Spa is a luxury 288-room resort located in the most tranquil part of the Riviera Maya on the northeastern area of the Yucatan Peninsula.

Riviera Maya is a tropical paradise ensconced by natural Mayan vegetation of native jungle trees, indigenous plants, mangroves and cenotes. The luxurious Catalonia Royal Tulum Resort and Spa is one of the Caribbean's premier adults-only resorts located in Riviera Maya, Mexico.

In addition, the Catalonia Royal Tulum Resort and Spa is only 20 minutes away from the renowned Tulum Archeological Zone, which is one of the best-preserved coastal Maya sites.

The ruins are located on 39-foot cliffs, along the east coast of the Yucatan Peninsula on the Caribbean Sea in the state of Quintana Roo.

These ancient ruins are the third most-visited archaeological site in Mexico and the site is also popular for its picturesque views of the Caribbean.

It was the ruins within the Tulum Archeological Zone and the area's rich history and natural resources that inspired Catalonia Royal Tulum Resort and Spa to employ an environmental policy to protect the Mayan legacy featuring proactive and sustainable practices executed throughout the resort.

For relaxation and pampering, try the the Alegria Spa by Catalonia. This spa features treatments centered around the indigenous essences and resources of the Mayan region and celebrates the rich culture and spirituality of the Mayan people.

Set away from general resort facilities of the Catalonia Royal Tulum, in a natural habitat of native jungle trees, endemic plants, mangroves, cenotes and water springs, the spa is an oasis of calm.
