

Darkside Ring Skull Collection by Holly Dymont Fine Jewelry

Holly Dymont Fine Jewelry

For those desiring jewelry that's unique and ideally masters the bridge between bad girl glamour and luxury jewelry, jewelry designer Holly Dymont offers punk rock chic pieces that radiate the Met Ball 2013 theme & Punk: Chaos To Couture.

Holly Dymont's Spring/Summer 2013 collection is full of both fantasy and mystery. Truly inspired by visionary creations from the likes of Tim Burton, Andy Warhol, Alexander McQueen, Cirque du Soleil and Damien Hurst, Dymont's line of jewelry creations evoke another level of creative and inspiring fashion forward design.

Each piece of every collection is individually handcrafted by Holly Dyment herself and is unforgettable and irreverent, yet wearable, with almost any wardrobe ensemble.

The seven, distinctive rings within Dyment's Darkside Ring Skull Collection were created using only the finest, handpicked gemstones from India plus colors that are based on ancient astrological color charts for the days of the week. A whole lot of glamour, the right level of edgy attitude, and a perfect splash of bling, Holly Dyment Fine Jewelry is perfectly punk.

The collection pieces are set in 14 and 18k yellow or white gold with precious and semi-precious gemstones and diamonds. The heart of the brand's jewelry design can be found within the sweet spot of juxtaposition – seriously beautiful and unique statement pieces of the highest quality, with a vivaciously vibrant sense of fun and intrigue.

Prices for the Darkside Ring Skull Collection range between $6,750 and $7,350.

Individual collections for Spring/Summer 2013 include: "Drop dead Gorgeous," Dark Side Ring," "Harlequin Stickpin," "Evil Eye" and "Carnival Earring collection" and range in price from $3,240 to $11,200K.
