

Enjoy New York's Finger Lakes Region at Mirbeau Inn & Spa

The luxurious Mirbeau Inn & Spa is a 34-room French-inspired retreat found near Skaneateles Lake in Central New York's popular Finger Lakes region. The stunning inn is surrounded by lush, Monet-inspired gardens and highly regarded for its endless luxury amenities, as well as the retreat's intimate atmosphere.

Built in French country style, Mirbeau is also surrounded by spruce forests, crystal clear lakes, and rolling hills. Wine lovers will rejoice and can visit more than 100 local wineries.

Mirbeau Inn & Spa has announced a new 851 package, which was named after the Inn's actual address – 851 West Genesee Street. It's the ideal way for guests to experience all that the luxury inn has to offer – French country guestrooms with fireplaces and claw foot tubs, savory fine dining menus, a wonderful wine list, plus a serene spa.

The 851 package at Mirbeau Inn & Spa includes accommodations for two nights plus a $500 credit which can be used toward any of their spa treatments. Try a Honey and Wine Body Wrap or even a Men's Estate Facial. It's truly a VIP experience!

Also included is a $100 wine card to be used for use at the inn's self-serve wine stations. You can choose from 24 wine choices, including New York State wines and even top international selections.

Pricing begins at $851 and is based on double occupancy. Room tax and resort fee are extra. This Mirbeau Inn & Spa travel package is available now through June 30 for Sunday through Wednesday arrivals.
