

Enjoy These Top Rated, All-Inclusive Resorts in Jamaica

Jamaica invites you with sun, sand and fun. Top rated all-inclusive resorts in Jamaica await, for you to enjoy. Located in the warm waters of the Caribbean, Jamaica offers visitors addictive reggae rhythms, plus expansive all-inclusive resorts.

This tropical paradise is well suited to couples looking for romance or an adult-only getaway. As a result, you can look forward a stress-free beach break from life's crazy pace. Be treated sugar white sand beaches and luxury hotels. The island of Jamaica's strong African connection makes it a Caribbean destination that is very unique.

We'd like to highlight three of top rated all-inclusive resorts in Jamaica. Jamaica is a Caribbean playground of pristine beaches, lush forests, fertile valleys and green mountains. Thus, top activities include riding a bobsled at Mystic Mountain, gliding down the Martha Brae River on a bamboo raft and exploring the Green Grotto Caves. In addition, don't miss out on climbing Dunn's River Falls, a series of terraced cascades and lagoons.

The upfront rate for an all-inclusive stay includes accommodations, meals, beverages, entertainment, activities and non-motorized water sports. There are over 60 all-inclusive resorts in Jamaica. Therefore, you have choices but we want to assist with your travel decision.

Top Luxury Resorts:

Hotel Riu Palace Tropical Bay

This 4.5-star beach resort in Negril has pools that face the sea, a spa and a kids club. Plus daily activities and entertainment include group fitness sessions, live music, beach volleyball, snorkeling and kayaking. For meals, choose from buffets, Japanese and Italian specialty restaurants and Jamaican barbecue by the beach. In addition, the spacious 400 rooms come with beverage dispensers and a balcony or terrace.

Iberostar Grand Rose Hall

A no-kids setting and butler service are among the perks at this 5-star escape in Montego Bay. Also, the huge infinity-edge pool has a swim-up bar, padded loungers and serene views of the Caribbean. In addition, Superior Suites are the closest rooms to both the beach and the pools, while swim-out suites are among the most private accommodations.

Grand Palladium Jamaica Resort & Spa

Begin your day at this 4.5-star Montego Bay retreat. Start with with kayaking or snorkeling in the Caribbean Sea. Then cool off in the afternoon at the pool, one of the largest on the island. Next, ease into the evening on the expansive veranda of the ocean-view Infinity Bar. Finally, enjoy dining at one of several restaurants, including Jamaican, Indian and Italian options. Resort rooms start at 538 square feet and have whirlpool tubs and balconies.

It's time you begin planning your next luxury getaway to Jamaica. This island paradisi is much more than a list of Caribbean clichés. This beautiful sunny island bustles with friendly people, plus stunning natural beauty. The Life of Luxury can assist you with all your luxury travel needs.

We hope you enjoyed reading about these top rated, all-inclusive resorts in Jamaica. Be sure to stop

by again soon and follow our luxury blog.

Photo: Iberostar Grand Rose Hall