

Experience Fall Foliage in Maine at the Inn by the Sea

The beautiful Inn by the Sea is located on a mile of sandy beach, and found just seven miles south of Portland, Maine's chic little port city. The inn overlooks beautiful mile-long Crescent Beach, providing incredible seaside and fall foliage views that can last a lifetime.

Hotel guests can enjoy a relaxed but elegant Maine coast experience in 61 luxuriously appointed one and two bedroom suites. The Inn also now offers its newest line of Ocean View Beach Suites that became available last summer.

In addition to being a great place to experience the annual New England fall foliage display, the Inn by the Sea has earned another distinction by becoming one of the first luxury hotels in the state of Maine to welcome both dogs and their owners.

Not only their owners will be treated well by staying here, but pampered pooches can now rejoice too! They will love that Maine's most dog-friendly inn offers pets complimentary accommodations, water bowls, cozy blankets, beach towels plus signature treats at night's turndown.

The list of pet amenities doesn't end there. The Inn can also provide grooming services and pet massages, gourmet pet menus, dog walking and day care, with a comprehensive variety of nearby walking trails, dog friendly beaches and free-range parks.

The Inn by the Sea has introduced its "INNcredible Pets" package that includes:

- * Two nights in a single bedroom suite accommodation
- * Inn by the Sea dog bowl
- * Personalized L.L. Bean dog bed

- * One 30 minute in-room doggie massage
- * Nightly entrée selection from the Inn's gourmet pet menu
- * Nightly pet turndown service including locally made seasonal dog treat
- * Package Rates start at $993.70

Enjoy the beauty of Maine this fall and take in the popular changing of leaves nature show. The "INNcredible Pets" package is available between September 2 and October 31, 2013.

The Inn by the sea also been recognized with numerous travel industry awards, including being selected as one of Travel + Leisure's 2012 World's Best 500 Hotels.

Maine is an incredible destination anytime of the year but don't miss the amazing colors of fall foliage. The dazzling colors will leave a lasting impression.

To visit coastal Maine this autumn, experience the incredible fall foliage and book a stay at the Inn by the Sea, please contact The Life of Luxury to make your reservations.