

Gurkha – One of The Best Cigars in the World

Gurkha cigars

Gurkha is widely known as one of the best cigars in the world. Many cigar lovers strongly believe Gurkha cigars are truly the best in the world.

Similar to fine wine, the premier cigars are a result of utilizing the best tobacco and proper aging. The tobacco aging process can last from five to ten years, but is critical to the excellent taste of all Gurkha cigars.

Here is a sample of some of our favorite cigars from Gurkha:

Crest L'Grand

One of the best cigars Gurkha makes. The company can only release 250 Crest L'Grand boxes this year. A special 9 year aged Connecticut broad leaf maduro wrapper has given this Gurkha cigar a remarkable taste. The Crest L'Grand cigar box is exquisite and will be a collector's center piece and the envy of all your friends.

Evil Corona

As Gurkha owner and founder Kaizad Hansotia has been quoted as saying, “this cigar is pure evil”. Make no mistakes here folks, it truly is pure evil. The Gurkha Evil Corona is one of the top rated cigars in the annual IPCPR convention for strength, quality, and construction. The Gurkha Evil will test your ability to walk and talk after smoking this amazingly strong, but complete cigar. Available in boxes of 20, the Elvis Wrapper is a dark oily Brazilian, with a pumped up Dominican Binder, and a Nicaraguan filler that will deliver all that you want and more in a cigar.
