

Incredible Flying Luxury Hotel Jet by Four Seasons

Taking an around the world trip is an item on many people's Bucket List. Now you can go in VIP style in a flying, luxury hotel by Four Seasons, which operates 92 hotels and private residences all around the world.

The luxury hotel brand is offering an amazing, private jet experience. Join Four Seasons on an exclusive journey around the world. It's a VIP experience of a lifetime and a unique opportunity to discover the world. In a luxurious Boeing 757 jet, Four Seasons will begin offering a series of around the world trips in 2016.

The initial trip will be a 24-day, nine-destination journey that begins in Los Angeles with stops including Hawaii, Bali, and Thailand. You will be staying in luxury accommodations at various Four Seasons Hotels before the trip ends in London, England.

Four Seasons started offering its around-the-world trip in 2012, but the luxury hotel brand only used a non-branded jet that carried 78 travelers. The new Four Season luxury jet is painted black and the aircraft will prominently display the iconic Four Seasons name in white on the fuselage. The jet's tail section will be the company's tree logo in white.

Fly the skies at 32,000 in this customized, private jet that seems like a flying hotel. From the first time you board, it will transform into your Private Jet Experience with endless luxury amenities that only the Four Seasons can offer. Starting with the cabin crew, you'll be accompanied by an executive chef, sous chef, concierge and guest services manager.

The custom Boeing 757 jet plane features 52 leather flat-bed seats that were expertly handcrafted in Italy. The carpet is handwoven adding to the luxury decor. A Four Seasons Executive Chef carefully designs and prepares all in-flight dining menus utilizing the finest and freshest ingredients found from local sources during your around the world journey. Another nice perk is the Four Seasons offers its flying guests iconic champagne brand Dom Pérignon. It all adds up to flying in both ultimate comfort and VIP style.

During your trip, all travel itineraries offer a variety of options and activities. This allows each traveler to customize their trip to their own personal taste. You can immediately begin your plans with the Four Seasons Global Guest Services Manager, who will also be onboard for all of your flight. You will also have access to a Four Seasons Concierge during your trip.

Below are the planned, around the world trips being offered by Four Seasons during 2016.
