

Luxurious El Dorado Seaside Suites Near the Tulum Mayan Ruins in Mexico

Karisma Hotels & Resorts is an award-winning luxury hotel collection company that either manages or own luxury properties in the Caribbean, Latin America plus Europe. Karisma Hotels & Resorts recently announced their newest addition – the luxury El Dorado Seaside Suites in the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico.

El Dorado Seaside Suites is located near the Tulum Mayan Ruins in Mexico. This stunning tropical getaway now becomes the only five-star, adults-only resort near historic Tulum, about a 20 minute drive away.

Tulum Mayan Ruins were built in the later part of the thirteenth century. This era is known as the Mayan post-classic period. As the only Mayan city that was ever built on a coast, Tulum had an approximately 784 meter wall to protect the Mayan city.

The new resort will feature 192 spacious swim-up and infinity suites. Each incredible suite includes its own pool located on a private terrace or balcony. It's definitely VIP style for its guests.

El Dorado Seaside Suites sits upon almost 80 pristine acres of land. The scenic surroundings offers a relaxing environment that makes it ideal for honeymooners, couples, wedding parties and even group getaways for friends and family. It's a wonderful experience and the chance to soak in Mexico's local culture and social atmosphere.

All offering beautiful views of the Caribbean Sea, choose from two spacious room categories – the Oceanfront Swim-up Jacuzzi Suites or the Oceanfront Infinity Jacuzzi Suites. Each suite has a private terrace in addition to an outdoor day bed plus romantic circular sofa. The sofas can actually swivel 360 degrees and accommodate two people. They're perfect to relax and simply gaze out over the Caribbean.

This new beachfront property consist of a six-story building with a world-class design utilizing modern architecture. The building is surrounded by indigenous palm trees, lush flora and beautiful white sand beach – perfect for soaking in that tropical sun.

For those who love to explore and experience local sightseeing, get out and view archeological destinations, one of the largest reefs in the Riviera Maya, an authentic Mayan civilization, Eco Parks and natural Cenotes.

For the ultimate in relaxation, try the Mayan-themed N'aay Spa, which is the largest spa in the Riviera Maya area. Luxury spa connoisseurs can enjoy hydrotherapy, facials, ancient holistic treatments, herbal therapy, a mud cabin, ice room, and even reflexology. For a real VIP experience, try N'aay Spa's signature Beachfront Sky Massage.

Food lovers will rejoice at this adults only resort in Mexico. The new El Dorado Seaside Suites offers 20 dining and bar establishments on the property. There's something for all your gastronomical delights. The dining choices include the Oceanfront Gourmet Corner for savory sandwiches and salads by the seaside. The Chef Market serves up an incredible food display along with cooking stations and worldwide cuisine. Mia Casa is a quaint, Italian restaurant. Showcasing Asian Wok cuisine is Klay Talay, which features fresh and creative dining food options plus a wide selection of Japanese beers and sake.

El Dorado Seaside Suites is now accepting reservations for the period of November 1 to December 22, 2015. Accommodation rates begin at just $340 per person, per night in one of the Oceanfront Infinity Jacuzzi Suites. As stay in one of the Oceanfront Swim-Up Jacuzzi Suites will be $407 per person, per night.

Would you love to vacation in eastern Mexico and stay at the luxury El Dorado Seaside Suites? Then contact The Life of Luxury today and experience a VIP lifestyle. Return often to follow our popular luxury blog and read about other luxury travel deals and desirable destinations.

Photo: El Dorado Seaside Suites