

Millennium Tower – Luxury Private Residences in San Francisco

Millennium Tower – San Francisco

Located in the “City by the Bay”, beautiful San Francisco, California – the Millennium Tower is an ultra-luxury, 60-story, residential tower.

Millennium Tower can be found at 301 Mission Street and has just announced a new lifestyle amenity for its residents – La Vie.

La Vie is a new monthly events program that’s designed to enhance both the Millennium Tower lifestyle, as well as showcase the many luxury amenities that are available to residents through Millennium Tower's 20,000-square-foot Club Level.

San Francisco's Millennium Tower features both incredible architecture and design that consistently draws new residents to this incredible, private residence building.

Millennium Tower offers a service-rich lifestyle along with luxurious amenities such as a private concierge and its "vertical neighborhood" feel, that centers around the Tower's hallmark Club Level.

The Millennium Tower Club Level has proven to be a popular spot for neighbors to gather, and features an owners' lounge, tasting room and cellar, private dining room (serviced by Chef Michael Mina's RN74), screening room, children's playroom, outdoor terrace, and a fitness center operated by Sports Club/LA, complete with Pilates and yoga studios, massage therapy, locker rooms, Jacuzzi and steam rooms as well as a 75-foot, indoor lap pool.

La Vie program offers Millennium Tower residents the opportunity to participate in exclusive and intriguing offerings such as a wine school seminar with renowned wine educator Karen MacNeil, fitness discussions with an expert from Sports Club/LA, monthly, themed "share your bottle" wine nights.

Another treat for San Francisco locals is a fireside chat with Millennium Tower resident and former San Francisco 49ers quarterback and football legend – Joe Montana.
