

Stylish Luxury Jewelry Collection by Sorellina

Sorellina – Kim and Nicole Carosella

Sorellina is a jewelry design house that was founded by two sisters, Kim and Nicole Carosella. All of the stunningly beautiful pieces of their high-end jewelry collection are bespoke custom-made luxury designs.

Sorellina has definitely redefined the “everyday” piece of jewelry. Their jewelry work is neither subtle nor discreet, but are bold, statement pieces made for the urban, modern day woman.

The Carosella work with raw sapphires, vintage diamonds (pre 1940s) and stones all of which, can be custom-designed to be one of a kind pieces. They pride themselves on 100% U.S. craftsmanship, with a focus on sustainability, as nearly all materials are recycled, reused or re-purposed for later use.

Every piece of their luxurious jewelry collection can be worn by women who view fine jewelry as wearable art and believe jewelry should be enjoyed everyday and not only on special occasions. If you want that VIP lifestyle look, then you need to glam up your fashion, and particularly your jewelry.

Each stunning piece can be worn both day and night, making it the staple of a woman's wardrobe which in turn, cleverly transforms clothing into the accessory.

Pricing for Sorellina's debut jewelry collection ranges between $500 – $75,000. View the entire collection at www.sorellinanewyork.com
