

Dancing With The Stars – Dance Floor Magic

The hit ABC show Dancing With The Stars is back. The Three-Night Premiere Event Begins Monday, September 22 2008 and this season, the shows seventh, is projected to be the best ever.

Season seven of Dancing With The Stars marks the largest cast assembled to date, the oldest and youngest competitors ever, and includes two Olympic Gold medalists, a Grammy®-winning singer, a television legend, an Oscar® winner, and a Super Bowl champion. Additionally, all four professional dancers who have previously tasted the thrill of victory return to compete against one another for bragging rights.

This season also promises to be the biggest and most demanding season ever. For the first time ever, all thirteen teams must prepare two routines for the first week of competition.

In alphabetical order, the celebrities dancers are: pop singer, Lance Bass, Grammy Awards singer Toni Braxton, model Brooke Burke, chef Rocco DiSpirito, sprinter Maurice Greene, reality celebrity Kim Kardashian, actress Cloris Leachman, actor Cody Linley, soap star Susan Lucci, olympic volleyball player Misty May-Treanor, actor Ted McGinley, comedian Jeffrey Ross, and football star Warren Sapp.

Dancing With The Stars is hosted by Tom Bergeron (America's Funniest Home Videos) and Samantha Harris (E! Entertainment).

The shows popular and lively judges are renowned Ballroom judge Len Goodman and dancer/choreographers Bruno Tonioli and Carrie Ann Inaba.
