Now you can takeover the entire, Yasawa Island Resort & Spa in Fiji. Enjoy the ultimate “social distancing” with a 3 night buyout at this luxury resort in Fiji. For this reason, isolate in paradise as your friends and family can have the entire 7,000-Acre Island to yourself.

The luxury Yasawa Island Resort & Spa resort is located on a lush, 7,000-acre island with just a handful of small Fijian villagers as your neighbors. Enjoy 11 white sandy beaches, five-star dining, world-class diving, Fijian culture, plus a myriad of water sports. In addition, visit the world-famous Blue Lagoon caves. This location is where the Hollywood movie “Blue Lagoon” was filmed. It starred actress Brooke Shields. As a result, this unsurpassed vacation destination can be “exclusively yours.”

The Yasawa Island Resort & Spa in Fiji is tucked away in the lush Yasawa group of Islands off the coast of main Island of Viti Levu. This secluded, tropical haven boasts 18 authentically thatched luxury bungalows. Therefore, they are hidden among luscious tropical foliage. Hence, you will have the ultimate in privacy. To be sure, you will be only steps away from a pristine stretch of silky beachfront.

This luxury resort is found on one of the most remote and unspoiled islands in Fiji. For this reason, the tropical oasis attracts couples, singles, families and groups from all around the world. For example, celebrate a milestone birthday, special anniversary or seeking to recharge and relax with family and friends. Therefore, look no further than the idyllic Yasawa Island Resort & Spa, Fiji. Plus, it’s an amazing place and unsurpassed sanctuary for sun and fun.

Guests at this exclusive retreat in a tropical paradise will be treated to:

- Arrival flower lei, chilled towel, fresh fruit & welcome coconut drink upon arrival
- Accommodation in 18 Beachfront Bures
- All gourmet meals and snacks for up to 38 guests
- Non-alcoholic beverages
- Beachside seafood dinner
- Complimentary beach cocktail party featuring house red, white and sparkling wine, Fiji rum punch
- Private picnics on your choice of 11 white sand beaches
- All resort activities: snorkeling, sea kayaking, SUP, sailing, tennis, nature walks and more
- Resort excursions: boat snorkel trips, visits to the world-famous Blue Lagoon Caves
- Nightly entertainment and cultural activities
- A traditional Fijian Meke performance and Lovo Night and choir performance

Foodies will simply love the Yasawa Island Resort & Spa. This all-inclusive resort boasts contemporary cuisine serving meals each day. For example, choose to dine at the new al fresco main dining complex with 180-degree view of the ocean, beachside, at the horizon pool or in the privacy of your very own beach hut. Importantly, the chef places an emphasis on “fresh” whether it is from the garden or ocean. In addition, the poolside Manasa’s Bar named after a long-time resort employee, serves signature cocktails from dawn to dusk.

If you desire a break from the craziness in the world, relax and enjoy life. A favorite pastime of many guests is a complimentary picnic on one of 11 white sandy beaches. Plus, visit Bukama Village where travelers can meet the chief and partake in a kava ceremony (the ceremonial drink of Fiji). Afterwards, enjoy the island’s culture by hearing the school choir sing. Lastly, partake in a lovo feast or witness a meke performance (the ceremonial dance of Fiji).

Outdoor enthusiasts will be treated to a variety of activities on land and at sea. Complimentary resort activities provide something for everyone. For example, guests can enjoy swimming in the crystal waters of the famous Sawa-I-Lau Caves or snorkeling among vivid corals and tropical fish. There is sea kayaking, boating on a catamaran and stand up paddle boarding and windsurfing. Back on shore, they enjoy tennis, volleyball, hiking and even rugby matches. Hence, the outdoor activities at Yasawa Island Resort & Spa in Fiji are endless.
