

Amilla Maldives Resort – Super-Sized Accommodation Upgrade for Families and Friends

The ultra-luxury Amilla Maldives Resort is adjusting to the increase size of guest groups. Therefore, the private island resort is proactively meeting the demand from both large family groups and friends.

Demand is growing for family holidays and group holidays in the Maldives. As a result, Amilla Maldives Resort and Residences decide it's time to upgrade their super-sized accommodation. For over a decade, the luxury Maldives vacation property is best known as a luxury honeymoon destination.

But today's visitors to the Maldives are much more diverse demographics. Included are groups of friends, large and multi-generational families, as well as the traditional market of honeymooners.

Amilla Maldives Resort

Always at the forefront of innovation, the luxury resort continually adapts to cater to the needs of its affluent guests. As such, Amilla's large naturally lush island boasts eight beachfront 'Residences'. They include huge villas with four, six and eight bedrooms. There are alongside its portfolio of 59 Water Villas, Treetop Villas and Beach Villas. The recent makeover ensures all unit will be in top-top condition for all its guests.

For example, the improvements include top of the range SMEG kitchen appliances, new plates, cutlery and kitchenware. Plus, enjoy stylish white outdoor chairs that complete the new look.

New feature tiles in the floors in the spacious living rooms have freshened up the space. Continuing, find new tiles in the bathrooms and outdoors. Lastly, a fresh coat of paint completes the indoor transformation.

Lush Landscaping

Lush bountiful gardens with expanded views of the ocean have made the vast outdoor living areas even enjoyable. They seamlessly blend the outdoors and indoors. Resort guests can enjoy outstanding sunset views. Relax from these palatial spaces and have direct access to the turquoise lagoon via their private beach.

Endless Lxuury Amenities

The six bedroom Residence features a private gym and spa, jacuzzi and rooftop bar. In addition, you will find a separate area for a nanny or other staff that guests are travelling with. The spacious unit includes two bedrooms, a kitchen and a dining room.

The Amilla Maldives Resort Residences uniquely feature their own private kitchen, an outdoor barbeque and al fresco dining space. Hence, guests can self-cater or make use of the resort's Private Chef. Resort guests can enjoy many, unique sustainability experiences. As an example, forage in the resort's extensive vegetable and herb gardens. You can collect eggs from Cluckingham Palace.

In addition, there are also new sand-resistant belt-driven premium bikes for adults and children. Plus, try the new eight-seater stretch buggies for the Great Beach Residence and uber-luxurious Amilla Estate.

The Life of Luxury can assist with planning and booking your next luxury vacation. Contact us to make your next luxury getaway a special one.

The Amilla Maldives Resort is an amazing luxury property. When visiting the Maldives, stay in this stunning luxury resort and enjoy a VIP experience.