

Enjoy The Rich Diversity of Mexico at Cala de Mar Resort & Spa

Mexico is a luxury travel destination that offers numerous destinations that provide sun-seekers with summer all year long. The Cala de Mar Resort & Spa in Ixtapa is the ideal luxury resort to enjoy all that Mexico offers.

While many popular destinations draw the attention of travelers for winter escapes, many smaller Mexican towns are continuing to make “Best Of” lists. They offer extraordinary quality of life, delicious food and drink, and exciting art scenes. For those who have visited the bigger name destinations on previous trips, the experts at Cala de Mar (a luxurious 59-room hotel perched on the dramatic cliffs of Ixtapa) have created a unique multi-city itinerary. Plus, it showcases the best of under-the-radar Mexican towns via a road trip that sensibly fits into the most popular airline routes.

Are you searching for a dream getaway? Are you culture lover, culinary enthusiast or a nature lover? Then consider the award-winning Cala de Mar Resort & Spa for your luxury Mexican vacation. For example, Mexico is continuing to evolve into one of the most exciting countries to visit. The country features many gorgeous cities that are recognized as some of the finest on the planet.

Cala de Mar Resort & Spa

Cala de Mar Resort & Spa is an award-winning, intimate oceanfront resort and spa. The luxury property provides 59 private suites. Each cascade down the steep cliffside of Ixtapa, Guerrero, Mexico into the azure Pacific below. Thus, it is an ideal venue for a relaxing wind down after seeing some of the world-class destinations throughout the country.

Cala de Mar Resort & Spa is a romantic escape that resides on the lush Sierra Madre cliff. As a result, the resort offers dramatic panoramic ocean views from the well-appointed suites' spacious terraces. Each suite fitted with a private heated plunge pool. Continuing, the resort's luxurious accommodations are open year-round. Enjoy world-class service and immersive culinary programming that reflects the vibrant Ixtapa-Zihuatanejo culture and spirit.

This exclusive property features a spa with Aztec healing treatments and three restaurants. Plus, a tequila and mezcal bar, yoga and meditation deck and private cove. Also, personal assistants, chef-led culinary excursions, and an array of complimentary daily amenities await. This gorgeous hotel was re-branded in 2018 and resides only minutes from Zihuatanejo.

The quiet fisherman's village is known for its surfing, seafood, and famous for the sandy bays that line the town. In addition, shop at the authentic markets and walk the quaint streets. All the while, the more modernized Ixtapa is home to a large marina, an upscale culinary scene, and picturesque golf courses.

Amazing Mexico Cities to Visit

Cities like Mexico City, Morelia, Patzcuaro, Troncones, and Ixtapa all garner copious accolades and acknowledgements. From their contributions to global culture, culinary excellence, and quality of life, it's clear that Mexico is making gigantic cultural leaps forward. The Cala de Mar Resort & Spa's management team consists of avid travel enthusiasts. Hence, they are based between Ixtapa on the coast and Mexico City inland. They carefully develop a proposed itinerary that encapsulates some of the best that the country has to offer.

Your Trip to Mexico City

Get ready to enjoy the capital city's culture, history and cuisine. Begin with a visit to the capital of culture, Mexico City. We recommend staying at least 3-4 days. The metropolis of almost 9 million people includes the historic neighborhoods of Roma, Condesa, and Polanco. Cosmopolitan visitors can discover an array of art galleries, innovative shops and crafts, and delicious cuisine.

Also, find world-class amenities that complement a vibrant creative scene that features some of the most exciting progressive ideas. Alongside historic attractions like Parque Chapultepec and Templo Mayor, the combination of activities on offer help showcase some of the best that Mexico has to offer.

A VIP Experience

The resort guest experience starts with a conversation with their Personal Assistant. They will gather key information about your personal preferences. For example, from food to on-site amenities and local activities. Next, through WhatsApp, the Personal Assistant can arrange activities and ensure an amazing culinary experience. In addition, even cocktails can be brought poolside as guests lounge in the warm Ixtapan sun. Last, flexible check in and check out times ensure guests have flexibility within their travel. Thus, this allows for your VIP experience to and from the hotel to remain worry free.

Cala de Mar has been named the #1 Hotel Resort in Mexico by Travel + Leisure's World's Best Awards. After your luxurious visit, you will definitely understand why.
