

3 Helpful Fashion and Cigar Tips – Smoke In Style This Winter

The temperatures are dropping and winter is approaching. Sure, we need to dress warmer but that doesn't mean you have to give up looking your best! We are happy to share 3 helpful fashion and cigar tips from Nat Sherman.

Nat Sherman International was founded way back in 1930. The family business has thrived for three generations. The company's goal is to drive the authentic tobacco experience. Their products are sold and respected around the world.

Three traditional activities that can still be enjoyed outdoors during fall and winter are fishing, nighttime bonfires and clay shooting. You can still look great while enjoying your favorite activity and a fine cigar from Nat Sherman. Experience a VIP lifestyle.

Michael Herklots is the VP of Retail & Brand Development at tobacconist, Nat Sherman. He has crafted the ideal style and cigar pairings. Enjoy the cool weather and the beauty of the outdoors.

Fishing

Fishing is a terrific way to spend time with and bond with generations of fathers, grandfathers and sons. It is such a wonderful family adventure. Be sure to dress properly and look your best. In addition, don't forget that perfect cigar in hand. Make the outing a memory that will last forever.

The Perfect Nat Sherman Cigar:

Michael Herklots VP of Retail & Brand Development at Nat Sherman recommends the Nat Sherman Panamericana Julieta.

What To Wear:

Orvis Clearwater Mesh Fishing Vest that is a great choice for any angler, Kuhl® Radikl™ Pants that boast all the design details for your fishing adventure, Award-winning Patagonia Tractor Wading Boots, and a Barbour® Classic Bedale Jacket for men stand up to cold, wind, and rain, and a Shearling-Lined Ivy Cap with earflaps that bring an extra measure of warmth to this cap.

Bonfire

When the nights turn cold, it's best to find the heat. A bonfire party is the perfect solution. Spend quality time with friends and family around a warm fire. A bonfire offers the ideal environment for your party guests to sit around the crackling fire and share good times. You can roast marshmallows, enjoy a nice glass of red wine, as well as a fine cigar. What a way to spend a perfect night outdoors.

The Perfect Nat Sherman Cigar:

Michael Herklots, VP of Retail & Brand Development at Nat Sherman recommends Nat Sherman Metropolitan Connecticut Explorer.

What To Wear:

Hunter Original Rubber Lace-Up Boots, Award-winning Hybrid Lite Jacket Black Label by Canada Goose for a flexible fit with premium down insulation, the Winchester Double Thickness Wool Scarf by Smart Turnout to add a pop of color, and a custom Eastlake Cardigan by Billy Reid.

Clay Shooting

Many people have never tried clay shooting. It's a really fun experience. Enjoy an exciting adventure outdoors. A gathering of family and friends will have lots of fun participating in this competitive activity. To look your best while clay shooting, check out Michael's below tips. He shares his best recommended cigar to smoke, in addition to fashion advice to shoot in style.

The Perfect Nat Sherman Cigar:

Michael Herklots VP of Retail & Brand Development at Nat Sherman recommends the Nat Sherman 1930 Corona Grande.

What To Wear:

Orvis Best-Grade Sporting Clays Gloves that offer unparalleled grip and feel, Laksen Clays Shooting Jacket that is waterproof and breathable, Convertible Dove and Clays Belt that is an Orvis best seller for years and Gokey® Classic Upland Boots that are a classic and made in the USA.

You can purchase Nat Sherman cigars at the Nat Sherman

Townhouse in New York City or on their website –
NatSherman.com

We hope you enjoyed the 3 helpful fashion and cigar tips from Nat Sherman. Be sure to stop by soon and follow our luxury blog. Read about the best in luxury living.

Photos: Nat Sherman