

Top 5 Destinations for A Luxury Vacation

Mauritius

When planning a luxury vacation, there are so many things to decide on. Do you want a hotel, villa, yacht or cruise ship? Beachfront, rainforest, or city break? But of course, the most crucial decision is destination.

Location is incredibly important. It can make or break your vacation or holiday. If you desire to stay in luxury hotel or resort, what are the best luxury travel destinations?

Here is a list of 5 top luxury vacation destinations:

Male, Maldives

This group of islands regularly referred to as a “tropical jewel” is located south west of Sri Lanka. Male is just one of 1900 islands among tens of thousands of coral reefs making up the Maldives. It’s a premier scuba diving, snorkeling and surfing destination. A huge amount of sunshine and a relaxed atmosphere make this a fantastic luxury holiday destination.

St James, Barbados

Known as the “Platinum Coast”, St James in Barbados is fast becoming the benchmark in luxury holiday destinations. Fantastic hotels, turquoise water, friendly people and sandy beaches makes St James a fantastic place to visit. Add in the luxury restaurants, colorful local character and rich historical significance and you can have a truly unique luxury holiday.

Mauritius

Tranquility surrounds the white beaches of Mauritius. From golf courses to botanical gardens, water sports to rainforest and a volcano. The small island of Mauritius enchants every visitor leaving a lasting impression of beauty. Once home to the Dodo, it is now firmly placed on the list of luxury travel destinations.

Paphos, Cyprus

With an average of 325 sunny days a year, diverse cuisine, landscapes and bags of history; Cyprus has become ever more a sophisticated destination since its EU inclusion in 2004. Paphos in particular is a very fashionable and sought after luxury travel destination with beaches, architecture, shopping and top class restaurants.

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Kuala Lumpur is a growing and exciting city with 5 star restaurants and exclusive venues. Plus, it’s just a short way from the Malaysian rainforests and coral gardens. Whale sharks, orangutans and flying foxes make Malaysia a wildlife lovers paradise. Its mix of cultures, unique festivals and gastronomy make it a must for those booking a luxury holiday.