

Tamer Super Bowl Commercials?

We can all recall our favorite Super Bowl commercials, whether they happened last year or ten years ago. Apple's original Mac commercial was amazing. How about the classic Budweiser horse football, or the Fed-Ex "Cast Away" ads?

This got me thinking about Super Bowl commercials that were actually memorable, and after some searching, here's a best-of-the-best list of 25. Once you've watched all these, you and that chick at your party who doesn't give a hoot about football will now have something to talk about on Monday morning.
