

The Beatles – Hard Days Night Hotel

Sleep off your hard day at the newest luxury hotel in Liverpool – it's "The Beatles" themed Hard Days Night Hotel.

The hotel is located in the 'Beatles Quarter' of the city, and features visually stunning, artwork covering many key events in the lives of John, Paul, George and Ringo.

The numerous artwork, seen throughout the hotel, features the specially commissioned 'Shannon Collection' and a unique statue of John Lennon, which greets visiting guests in the hotel atrium.

The hip, 110 room hotel has two extravagant luxury suites. The hotel keeps a wrap on the details of the suites as to amaze the guests of the suites. However, the rumour is that the Lennon Suite features its own white piano – paying tribute to the white piano Lennon plays on the back cover of the Imagine... Album.

John Lennon's sister, Julia, is quoted saying the $1,300 a night suite is "stunning" and "spectacular". The other secret suite is the McCartney Suite which is said to pay tribute to his knighthood with the suite's personal suit of armor.

The hotel isn't just for Beatles Fans. The four-star hotel, housed within a 19th century mercantile building, also caters to business travelers and tourists with the deluxe rooms which contain en suite bathroom and shower, luxurious double bed, a leather topped desk and panoramic views of the Liverpool skyline.

The Hard Days Night Hotel reservations can be booked on their website <http://www.harddaysnighthotel.com> or by calling +44 (0)151 236 1964.
