

The Hotel Grand Pacific in Victoria Canada

This luxury Victoria, Canada hotel will blow you away with a breathtaking view of the city by the water. Located in the heart of Victoria's Inner Harbor, you'll be able to view the most beautiful garden city in Canada.

Condé Nast Traveler readers named Victoria, British Columbia's Hotel Grand Pacific the top hotel in the country in the magazine's 21st Annual Readers' Choice Awards.

This luxury hotel is situated on Victoria's picturesque Inner Harbour and within strolling distance of Old Town's unique shops, galleries and cafés.

Guest rooms and public areas command wonderful views of the harbor, the city's Old Town, the Gorge Waterway and the Olympic Mountains of Washington State. Hotel amenities include an award-winning restaurant, the Grand Pacific Athletic Club and the Spa at the Grand.

The hotel's Grand Pacific Athletic Club offers a 25-meter pool, hot tub, sauna, and comprehensive training facilities. Spa at the Grand provides full spa services and beauty treatments.

The hotel offers several choices for on-site dining, including the elegant Pacific Restaurant, Pacific Lounge, and The Mark. Casual snacks and light meals are also available at Courtyard Cafe.

Getting a room in this hotel includes another luxury amenity. A "Pillow Menu" is available for those that need the perfect pillow to sleep on.

The Hotel Grand Pacific will cost you from $139-$400 (Depending on the season, and promotional considerations)

Hotel Grand Pacific

463 Belleville Street

Victoria, Canada