Oktoberfest is held each year in Munich, Bavaria, Germany. It's a popular 16-day folk festival that runs from mid or late September to the first weekend in October. Years ago, it was held in October, but moved up to September to have better weather. Of course, it's still called Oktoberfest.

This year, Oktoberfest 2018 will be held between Saturday September 22 to Sunday October 7, 2018. If you have never gone, you honestly don't know what you're missing. It's a rich blend of German culture, great food and beer, plus entertainment. Once again, Oktoberfest 2018 will host visitors from all over the world, who travel to this annual event.

In 1810, Bavarian Crown Prince Ludwig chose to wed Princess Therese. To celebrate the grand wedding on October 12, Prince Ludwig organized a public horserace five days later. The race occurred on the very same site of the modern day Oktoberfest. Who knew at the time, that such an exclusive event has turned the area outside Munich into a worldwide festival.
