Dubai in the United Arab Emirates, is well known around the world as a luxury waterfront retreat, and for building the most extravagant and outrageous architectural resort hotels.

Now Dubai has set another landmark by recently opening the world's largest store selling the prestigious Italian sports car Ferrari.

For the opening of the boutique, Italian automaker Ferrari delivered about 100 classic as well as several modern models, including the awesome California Roadster.

The store grand opening was attended by Kimi Raikkonen and Giancarlo Fisichella, the current pilots of the world car racing championship ring "Formula 1".

All the luxury cars will take part in the race Dubai – Abu Dhabi, which will culminate in the new route "Formula 1", located on an artificial island of Yas.
